

To all Attorneys, Paralegals, and Legal Professionals

Redwood Empire
association of paralegals

in association with the California Alliance of Paralegal Associations (CAPA) presents:

ETHICS SEMINAR

This is our annual ethics seminar. This year the focus is on knowledge and application of legal ethics standards and professional responsibility. Some of the topics that will be discussed include UPL, attorney-client privilege, and work product doctrine.

Thursday, October 25, 2018

Check in at 5 pm. Seminar: 5:30-7:30 pm. Light dinner will be served.

Location: Sonoma County Bar Association
111 Santa Rosa Ave #222, Santa Rosa

Parking for this seminar is ONLY available in the Public Parking Garage at 555 First St. Do not park in the parking lot at 111 Santa Rosa Ave.

Presenter: Laura Rosenthal, Attorney at Law

Laura Chiyono Rosenthal has been with the Law Office of Richard J. Meechan since September 2013. Her compassionate advocacy for injured workers is grounded in three prior decades of practical legal experience. Ms. Rosenthal has worked as a paralegal, a private investigator, a law librarian, a college instructor, and a law professor. She is an adjunct professor of law at Empire Law School and an adjunct instructor at Empire College in the paralegal program. She is a member of the California Bar Association, Sonoma County Bar Association, California Applicants' Attorneys Association (CAAA), and North Bay Workers' Compensation Association. Ms. Rosenthal's practice is primarily focused on workers' compensation cases, with some civil employment discrimination cases.
